CR 3: Sri Louis D. Souza- Pakistan- renewal of.

Ref: Government Memo No. 101589 Ppt. X/54-1 Home dated 31.7.54.

I invite attention to my report ref. C4.7825-52 dated 23.12.54 submitted in reply to Government Memo No. 103991 Ppt. III/52-3 Home dated 20.10.52. Further enquiries show that Sri Louis D. Souza of Kosala village was working as a medical representative of Cosmos Chemicals, Bombay up to about 2 years ago, drawing a salary of Rs. 250/- per month. On account of sickness he returned to his village and now he is without any employment. He has no landed properties registered in his name. But he has got family properties paying an assessment of Rs. 18/- and registered in the joint name of his family members. The applicant has got sufficient funds to go to Pakistan and return. He is not likely to be repatriated at Government expense if he is granted renewal of passport facilities.

2. The applicant intends going to Pakistan to see his father who is employed in Messrs. Cox and Kings, Ltd, Karachi, and to enquire into his welfare as the latter had stopped correspondence with his family for the past about 6 years. The applicant is not an evacuee or connected with evacuee properties or proceedings under the Evacuee property law. He was not previously convicted under the Influx from Pakistan control act. The character and antecedents of the applicant are reported to be good. The applicant's case does not fall under any of the categories mentioned in G.O. No. 3080 Home dated 22.8.52. The passport may therefore be renewed for a further period of one year.

Yours faithfully,
